By Leif Weatherby : Transplanting the Metaphysical Organ: German Romanticism between Leibniz and Marx (Forms of Living)

Transplanting the Metaphysical Organ: German Romanticism between Leibniz and Marx (Forms of Living):

Around 1800 German romanticism developed a philosophy this study calls "Romantic organology". Scientific and philosophical notions of biological function and speculative thought converged to form the discourse that "Transplanting the Metaphysical Organ" reconstructs a metaphysics meant to theorize and ultimately alter the structure of a politically and scientifically destabilized world. This is an ambitious disciplined study that reveals new aspects of Romanticism; it is an invaluable reference for anyone interested in German Romanticism.
