Interaction (Global East Asia):

This book uses a cultural interaction approach to discuss numerous temples and shrines of Sinitic origin that house Daoist Buddhist and folk gods. Such deities were transmitted outside the Chinese continent or were introduced from other regions and syncretized. Examples include temple guardian gods that arrived in Japan from China and later became deified as part of the Five Mountain system and a Daoist deity that transformed into a god in Japan after syncretizing with it. About the Author Yoshihiro Nikaido is Professor of Asian Cultural studies at the Kansai University, Japan.
